

From 11th to 13th of August Sovereign Women United will meet and host a three day conference at the Croquet Club 91 Cordelia St South Brisbane QLD.

We need to get our mob together to talk about the high rate of forced removal of Aboriginal children and how we can fight against it. Our children who are in foster care are not getting the cultural upbringing they need in non-Aboriginal homes.

On June 30 1997, there were 2,785 Aboriginal kids in "out of home care". Now there are more than 15,000. The majority of these kids have not been placed with their Aboriginal families; and relatives are routinely denied 'kinship carer' status without justification.

Sovereign Women United are part of the national movement demanding that the close to 16,000 Aboriginal children in "out-of-home care" across Australia be brought home.
